LA REINA HIGH SCHOOL

Thirty-first Annual
Evening of Excellence

April 24, 2013
Why an Evening of Excellence?

La Reina High School is the result of a vision that the Sisters of Notre Dame had more than forty years ago when they founded the school in Thousand Oaks. In the spirit of the Gospel and according to the educational traditions of St. Julie Billiart, spiritual foundress of the Sisters of Notre Dame, La Reina provides a Catholic education in which each young woman may discover, develop and share the unique gifts God has given her.

At La Reina, students are given opportunities to grow spiritually, to achieve academic excellence, to develop a global perspective, and to contribute to the community. The school consistently produces award-winning speech teams and scholarship winners, as well as Tri-Valley League and Ventura County Mock Trial champions. All students are involved in some type of activity in the community, volunteering in hospitals, religious education programs, and in other community agencies. La Reina graduates are young women with meaningful values, schooled in the tradition of Christian service, willing and able to pursue excellence in reaching their goals.

To bring together outstanding students, their parents and community leaders, the La Reina High School Parent Guild hosts an Evening of Excellence. Students who receive awards have achieved excellence in a specialized field. Pioneered by the late Mark Bihn in 1982, this event gives the school and local communities the opportunity to recognize these outstanding students.

The Julie Award was inaugurated in 1998. This distinction recognizes a student who exemplifies the qualities of St. Julie Billiart. The criteria were formulated by the Sisters of Notre Dame to acknowledge a student who

- proclaims God’s goodness through joyful simplicity in her daily choices and actions;
- believes in, supports and lives the principles of the Catholic Church;
- shows a generous self-giving for the good of others, without desire for reward;
- maintains a positive and cheerful attitude in all of life’s situations;
- has a universal heart and attitude, a heart wider than the universe.

Elizabeth Hribal ’13
Academics Award - Liberal Arts

Elizabeth Hribal, senior, will be accepting the Liberal Arts Award. A National Merit Finalist and AP Scholar with Honors, Elizabeth has received first honors throughout high school. Elizabeth is a three year member of the Mock Trial team which has won multiple championships: Empire World (2011-2012), California (2011-2013), and Ventura County (2011-2013). She has also been on the Speech and Debate Team for four years. Her volunteer work includes service at Church of the Epiphany in Oak Park. Three years ago, she started a speech and debate team at a middle school and still serves as its coach. She is waiting for college acceptances, and considering a major in neuroscience or political science, with the eventual goal of attending either medical school or law school. She talks about her growth at La Reina. “When I came to La Reina, I was shy and lacked a lot of self-confidence. Being in an environment where we are all growing together, are supportive of each other, and like a family, is really great. Here, I am allowed to be the person I want to be.”

Stacey Bacheller ’13
Academics Award - Mathematics/Science

Receiving the Academics Award for Math and Science is senior, Stacey Bacheller. A member of National Honor Society and CSF, Stacey has earned first honors throughout high school. For the last two years, she has been president of the Mathletes Club, which enters math competitions. She was selected student of the month in the 10th grade and was recently awarded the Colorado School of Mines Medal of Achievement in Math and Science. An accomplished equestrian, who competes on both the local and national level, Stacey does volunteer work with Special Equestrian Riding Therapy. She has been accepted at Northeastern University in Boston and at Polytechnic Institute of New York University, which has awarded her several scholarships. Stacey, who plans to major in math or science, is grateful for her La Reina education: “La Reina students and faculty have taught me to fully embrace my personality and interests. The teachers truly want to see us succeed and push us to do our best.”
Audrey Askegard ’13
Arts Award

Receiving the Arts Award is senior Audrey Askegard. Her passion for art has led her to explore many mediums. Her acrylic painting and colored pencil drawing earned her first places at the Ventura County Fair. She created a video for The Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers and enjoys experimenting with digital graphic design. Her community service is as varied as her art work: she volunteers at Habitat for Humanity, a local animal shelter and the YMCA. She believes that her life mission “is to shine light in moments of darkness” with her art work. She is still considering her college choices; thus far, California Lutheran University has awarded her a Provost Scholarship. Her lifetime goal is “to live a life where I keep my connection with God, and stay true to myself.” She says that “La Reina shares the same mission as my parents, which is to help me become an independent, balanced, and educated person.”

Bess Grode ’13
Athletics Award

Senior Bess Grode was selected for the Athletics Award. Bess is captain of the Varsity Swim Team, where she has been a member since the 9th grade. Her swim honors include Second Team All League (grade 9) and First Team All League (grades 10-11). Bess’s first love is water polo. A member of Santa Barbara Water Polo Club, which has won the Junior Olympics Championship and the United States Club Championships twice, Bess received Honorable Mention on the All-American team this past summer. Her volunteer work has been at a local water polo club. A school leader, Bess was in Student Council during grades 7 through 11. A National Merit Semifinalist and AP Scholar, Bess has received first honors throughout high school. She is still waiting to hear from colleges, but graduate school is part of her plans, because she wants to study neuroscience, focusing on children with mental disabilities. She considers herself “blessed and lucky” to have attended La Reina. “The girls here are the nicest group of people you will ever meet. The teachers have taught me not just academics, but life lessons.”
Caitlin Campbell ’13
Christian Service Award

Caitlin Campbell, senior, will be presented with the Christian Service Award. At St. Peter Claver Parish, Caitlin serves as a volunteer at Vacation Bible School and as a peer leader in Youth Ministry. In the community, she is a math and science tutor and a volunteer at Simi Valley Hospital, where she received an award for 200 hours of service. She is also a Spanish translator at a free dental clinic. At school, Caitlin is a member of National Honor Society, Comedy Sportz, and a retreat leader. Planning to be a pediatrician, Caitlin says that La Reina has allowed her to be her “true self.” She states, “La Reina taught me how to be a leading and spiritual force in my community. Christian values I have received are love for all, justice (helping the disadvantaged), grace (spreading the word of God to others in my community), joy (the happiness I feel when helping others), and service.”

Lena Melillo ’13
Communication Arts Award

Senior Lena Melillo is the recipient of the Communications Award. Lena participated in Mock Trial for four years and was co-captain this year. The team has won many championships: Empire World (2011-2012), California (2011-2013), and Ventura County (2011-2013). A member of the Speech and Debate team, Lena has qualified for state and national competitions, and earned the National Forensic League’s highest level of distinction. An AP Scholar with Distinction, Lena is a member of the National Honor Society. Much of her volunteer work has been in education: she tutors at risk students and started a debate club at a middle school where she continues to coach. Lena, who is weighing acceptances from a variety of schools, is considering majors in philosophy and women’s studies. She also plans to attend law school. She praises her time at La Reina. “La Reina offers unparalleled academics. The classes are challenging and the teachers are very committed to your education. Unique to La Reina are the Catholic values and the community that forms around those values.”
Marisa Orlow ’13
Julie Award

Marisa Orlow is receiving the Julie Award, which is given to a senior who most exemplifies the qualities of St. Julie Billiart, the spiritual foundress of the Sisters of Notre Dame. At school, Marisa is a retreat leader, one of the editors of the yearbook, and a member of the La Reina singers and the swim team. In the community, Marisa volunteers at the Boys and Girls Club and is an active member of St. Maximilian Kolbe Church in Oak Park. Marisa, who plans to double major in math and studio art, aspires to be a medical illustrator. She has received scholarships from Lake Forest College, Seattle University, and St. Norbert’s College. She credits La Reina with giving her the opportunity “to develop my individual gifts and to become a catalyst for the promotion of justice...The values I have been taught at La Reina have been a true blessing in my life, a blessing I now have the opportunity to share with the rest of the world.”

Melina Coto ’14
Leadership Award

Junior Class President, Melina Coto, was chosen for the Leadership Award. As class president, her goal has not been “to make all the decisions, but to make sure that the juniors and all of La Reina make special memories.” As a freshman, she attended the National Young Leaders State Conference in Irvine. Her leadership skills are also apparent at St. Jude the Apostle Church where she is a confirmation leader. A member of National Charity League since 7th grade, she has completed over 530 hours of volunteer work. In this capacity, she has worked with organizations such as the ALS Foundation, Manna Food Bank, and Casa Pacifica. Last year, as a member of the Speech and Debate Team, Melina qualified for state competition in the Humorous Interpretation category. Her dream is to have a successful career in television and film. She comments on her La Reina experience: “Every day I thank God that I go to a school as amazing as La Reina...I love being able to walk down the halls and smile at all the familiar faces.”
